

NEW! The Times of India (1838–2001)

The Times of India is the world's largest circulation English daily newspaper. Founded in 1838 to serve the British residents of West India, The Times of India now circulates more than 4 million copies, covering almost 8 million readers. Originally this paper was British owned, but since Independence, has been owned by The Times of India Group. The Times of India is particularly valuable for its coverage of key historical events in India, including the rise of Gandhi's Civil Disobedience movement, the 1947 Independence and Partition through to the landmark date of 1998 when Pakistan became a nuclear power.

The Times of India provides exceptional depth to the study of colonial and post-colonial times, class and gender issues, religion, as well as international economics, international relations and cultural studies.

Cross-searching with ProQuest Historical Newspapers, the world's largest digital newspaper archive, encompassing more than 25 million pages:

- The archive offers many leading US titles including The New York Times (1851–2006), as well as The Guardian (1821–2003) and The Observer (1791–2003), The Scotsman (1817–1950), The Irish Times (1859–2009) and The Weekly Irish Times (1876–1958).
- Availability on the ProQuest historical platform in full-page and article images in easily downloadable PDF format. This means that libraries will benefit from the superior search platform, article display and results functionality of ProQuest. ProQuest has also enhanced the digital files to provide more accurate results required for research, in addition to article zoning, and manual editorial intervention to assign article types.
- Unlimited access to this entire archive of invaluable historical content – including full-page mapping, article images with searchable full text for all titles, including hit-term highlighting.

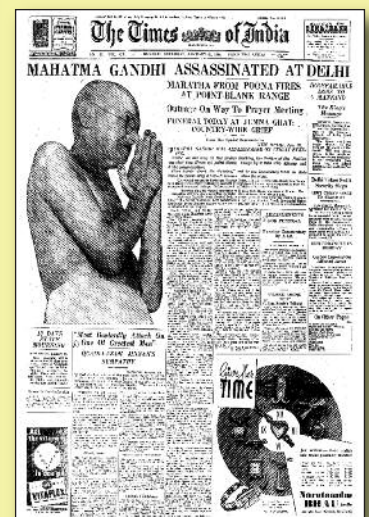

An indispensable research solution

As part of ProQuest's definitive digital archive of leading newspapers, The Times of India has been digitised from cover to cover, with full-page and article images in easily downloadable PDF format. This makes it possible for users to track, evaluate and compare event coverage for in-depth research.

In the headlines:

- 1857–58 Sepoy Mutiny, India comes under direct rule of Britain
- 1885 Indian National Congress formed
- 1921 Rise of Gandhi's Civil Disobedience movement
- 1947 Independence and Partition
- 1948 War with Pakistan over Kashmir region
- 1971 East Pakistan Civil War creates Bangladesh
- 1974 India becomes a nuclear power
- 1984 Assassination of Indira Gandhi
- 1984 Bhopal Disaster
- 1991 Rajiv Gandhi assassinated
- 1998 Pakistan becomes a nuclear power

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Booklist's 2007 "Top of the List" reference source

Library collection development

Available on a site-wide subscription or perpetual archive basis, ProQuest Historical Newspapers offers libraries:

- Interdisciplinary collection development opportunities.
- Space and storage saving.
- Remote access.
- Flexible licence options.

Leading technology and human editorial intervention for faster, more accurate results

Users can search, view and download the entire newspaper, including articles, front pages, photos, display advertisements and other article types with ease. Documents are digitised at the highest possible resolution to deliver clean, readable images. In addition, articles that originally appeared on multiple pages of the newspaper are "threaded" together and appear as one continuous PDF file, saving time for the researcher.

Fascinating insights, fast access

Benefits of access to The Times of India on ProQuest include:

- Cross-search with other leading titles including The New York Times from the US, The Guardian and The Observer from the UK, and The Irish Times from Ireland.
- Site licence access, with unlimited searching.
- Research is easily embedded into workflow through ProQuest's MyResearch for saved searches, and bibliographic management tools.
- Library integration tools – usage reports, linking, interface customisation, multiple languages, etc.
- Upgraded digital files, ensuring a higher standard of accuracy for academic research.

- Precise, fast searching of millions of pages.
- Ability to view articles exactly as they appeared in the newspaper.
- Browsing individual edition – every page, every article, every advertisement, to put your results in context and re-create an experience comparable with reading an actual newspaper.

Start here for a world of discovery

ProQuest Historical Newspapers contains more than 25 million pages of easily accessible historical, international news content that illuminates history as much as it reports the facts.

Also available:

- The Guardian (1821–2003) and The Observer (1791–2003)
- The Irish Times (1859–2009) and The Weekly Irish Times (1876–1958)
- The Scotsman (1817–1950)
- The New York Times (1851–2006)
- The Wall Street Journal (1889–1992)
- The Washington Post (1877–1993)
- Atlanta Daily World (1931–2003)
- The Baltimore Sun (1837–1985)
- Chicago Defender (1910–1975)
- The Chicago Tribune (1849–1986)
- The Hartford Courant (1764–1984)
- Los Angeles Sentinel (1934–2005)
- Los Angeles Times (1881–1986)
- New York Amsterdam News (1922–1993)
- New York Tribune (1841–1922)
- Pittsburgh Courier (1911–2002)
- San Francisco Chronicle (1865–1922)
- The Atlanta Constitution (1868–1945)
- Detroit Free Press (1831–1922)
- The Indianapolis Star (1903–1922)
- The Boston Globe (1872–1979)
- The Christian Science Monitor (1908–1996)
- More coming soon!

www.proquest.co.uk/go/historicalnewspapers

For more information or for a free trial, e-mail newspapers@proquest.co.uk and quote code MKT 57 10.

www.proquest.com

This publication is printed on paper from sustainable sources using soya based inks.